Third Sunday in Ordinary Time A New Way, A New World

In the reading from Jonah, God told him to preach repentance to the people of Nineveh. When the whole city repented the very first day, they showed it by wearing sackcloth and fasting from food. Sometimes we might think that way: That repenting means punishing ourselves or feeling sorry. Jesus sees things differently.

He preached repentance that was a change of heart, a new way of looking at things, a new way of acting. In the gospel today, we see an example. The first people he calls to be disciples were fisherman. They would have considered their family, their partners, and their boat as the most important things in their lives. You need all of them to be a successful fisherman. One man sitting on a dock with a pole could barely keep himself fed, much less support a family.

Yet the disciples don't even hesitate when called by Jesus. They leave behind their boats, their nets, even their father, to follow Jesus. They don't worry about what they will do, or look back at what they are leaving behind. Now they are fishers of men. Their "repentance" was more than just giving up sins. They were beginning a new life and a new way of looking at the world.

Saint Paul refers to this as a new world. By following Jesus, we put the values of the present world behind us and look forward to a new one. His examples could apply today as much as in his time. Marriages, joy, sadness, buying property are still considered important to worldly people. Paul doesn't expect everyone to stop doing those things. When he talks about not using the world fully, he means not fully engaged in the world, but looking to a better one, where God is more important than any passing pleasure or pain. Is your marriage an example of God's love for your friends and relatives? When you are rejoicing, do you give thanks to God? When weeping, do you ask for his help? When you are shopping, do you buy what you really need, or what you think will make you happy? Jesus calls us all to this new way of living. With Jesus, we can make a new world.

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Una forma nueva, un mundo nuevo

En la lectura de Jonás, Dios le dijo que predicara el arrepentimiento al pueblo de Nínive. Cuando toda la ciudad se arrepintió el primer día, lo demostraron vistiéndose de arpillera y ayunando de los alimentos. A veces podríamos pensar de esa manera: que arrepentirnos significa castigarnos a nosotros mismos o sentir pena. Jesús ve las cosas de otra forma.

Jesús predicó el arrepentimiento que era un cambio de corazón, una forma nueva de ver las cosas, una forma nueva de actuar. En el evangelio de hoy, vemos un ejemplo. Las primeras personas a las que llama a ser discípulos fueron pescadores. Consideraban a su familia, a sus parejas y a su barca como las cosas más importantes de sus vidas. Necesitaban a todos ellos para ser un pescador exitoso. Un hombre sentado en un muelle con una caña de pescar apenas podía alimentarse a sí mismo, y mucho menos mantener a una familia.

in embargo, los discípulos ni siquiera dudan cuando Jesús los llama. Dejan sus barcas, sus redes, incluso a su padre, para seguir a Jesús. No se preocupan por lo que harán ni miran hacia atrás a lo que están dejando. Ahora son pescadores de hombres. Su "arrepentimiento" fue más que simplemente renunciar a los pecados. Estaban comenzando una vida nueva y una nueva forma de ver al mundo.

San Pablo se refiere a esto como un mundo nuevo. Al seguir a Jesús, dejamos atrás los valores del mundo actual y esperamos uno nuevo. Sus ejemplos podrían aplicarse hoy tanto como en su época. Los matrimonios, la alegría, la tristeza y la compra de propiedades todavía se consideran importantes para la gente del mundo. Pablo no espera que todos dejen de hacer esas cosas. Cuando habla de no utilizar el mundo plenamente, se refiere a no estar plenamente involucrado en el mundo, sino buscar uno mejor, donde Dios sea más importante que cualquier placer o dolor pasajero. ¿Tu matrimonio es un ejemplo del amor de Dios para tus amigos y familiares? Cuando te alegras, ¿das gracias a Dios? Cuando lloras, ¿le pides ayuda? Cuando vas de compras, ¿compras lo que realmente necesitas o lo que crees que te hará feliz? Jesús nos llama a todos a esta nueva forma de vivir. Con Jesús podemos hacer un mundo nuevo.
