Second Sunday of Easter
X-treme Christians

You may notice that Acts of the Apostles is the source of the first readings during the Easter season. This book describes how Christianity grew from a handful of disciples to a major religion. Today's reading about an ideal Christian community is meant to show ordinary believers how to be extraordinary, using three examples I call power, property, and prayer.

Power means the "signs and wonders" (Acts 2:43) performed by the disciples through the power of the Holy Spirit. This should be named last, because it takes a lot of faith to heal the sick. If you had the same faith as the apostles, you just might be able to cure the sick. Or you might study to become a doctor and cure them with medical skills. As long as you acknowledge that God gave you the brains and the talent to become a doctor, you are doing God's work.

By property, I mean sharing what you have with those in need. Many disciples were moved to sell their goods and share them with the poor, and word of that must have spread. If you are not called to sell all your goods and become a monk or a nun, you can still tithe to your church or the poor. You can donate time as well, perhaps tutoring disadvantaged kids, helping build or repair houses in poor areas, or bringing meals to shut-ins. The point is that followers of Christ are not just individual do-gooders. They are a community of believers who care about each other and also care about the non-believers who need help of any kind.

So where did these first disciples get the faith to cure the sick and the love to help the needy? The answer is the third example—prayer. Twice in the first reading we hear how "they devoted themselves . . . to the breaking of the bread" (Acts 2:42, 46). Breaking bread was their name for the Eucharist. They also went to the temple to pray, because at that time most disciples were Jewish Christians. As they heard the Hebrew scriptures, they saw how God's promises were fulfilled in Christ. Later, they added reading from the letters of Paul and preaching about Jesus' works and teachings. All of these practices helped unite them to Christ and to each other.

Segundo Domingo de Pascua
Cristianos extremos

Quizás te has dado cuenta que el libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles es la fuente de las primeras lecturas durante la temporada de Pascua. Este libro describe cómo el cristianismo creció de un puñado de discípulos a una gran religión. La lectura de hoy sobre una comunidad cristiana ideal tiene como objetivo mostrar a los creyentes comunes cómo ser extraordinarios, utilizando tres ejemplos que llamo poder, propiedad y oración.

El poder se refiere a "los milagros y prodigios" (Hechos 2,43) realizados por los discípulos mediante el poder del Espíritu Santo. Esto debería mencionarse al final, porque se necesita mucha fe para sanar a los enfermos. Si tuvieras la misma fe que los apóstoles, quizás podrías curar a los enfermos. O podrías estudiar para ser médicos y curarlos con habilidades médicas. Siempre y cuando reconozcas que Dios te dio la inteligencia y el talento para ser médicos, están haciendo la obra de Dios.

Por propiedad, me refiero a compartir lo que tienes con los necesitados. Muchos discípulos se sintieron impulsados a vender sus bienes y compartirlos con los pobres, y la noticia de esto debió haberse difundido. Si no estás llamado a vender todos tus bienes y convertirte en monje o monja, aún puedes dar el diezmo a tu iglesia o a los pobres. También puedes donar tu tiempo, quizás dando clases particulares a niños desfavorecidos, ayudando a construir o reparar casas en zonas pobres, o llevando comida a personas confinadas en sus hogares. La cuestión es que los seguidores de Cristo no son solo personas que hacen el bien individualmente. Son una comunidad de creyentes que se preocupan unos por otros y también por los no creyentes que necesitan ayuda de cualquier tipo.

Entonces, ¿de dónde obtuvieron estos primeros discípulos la fe para curar a los enfermos y el amor para ayudar a los necesitados? La respuesta es el tercer ejemplo: la oración. Dos veces en la primera lectura escuchamos cómo "eran constantes... en la fracción del pan y las oraciones". La fracción del pan era su nombre para la Eucaristía. También iban al templo a orar, porque en ese momento la mayoría de los discípulos eran cristianos judíos. Al escuchar las Escrituras hebreas, vieron cómo las promesas de Dios se cumplían en Cristo. Más tarde, añadieron la lectura de las cartas de Pablo y la predicación sobre las obras y enseñanzas de Jesús. Todas estas prácticas contribuyeron a unirlos a Cristo y entre sí.
