The Ascension of the Lord Exalted in Glory

All three readings talk about Jesus being taken up into heaven or in a cloud or on high. Remember that in the Old Testament, a cloud was a sign of God's presence. So these descriptions of the ascension actually tell us that Jesus is reunited with his Father and exalted in glory with the Father. Jesus not only has a new life that cannot be ended by death, he also is no longer limited by time or space as he was before he died. So what does that mean for us?

Because he is not limited, he can be with us everywhere. So everything we do for him (being patient with a child or elderly person, caring for the poor or the sick, forgiving someone who hurt us) is done with Jesus. Through his Spirit, he gives us the power and the courage to act as Jesus and the vision of faith to see Jesus in others.

Seeing Jesus in others takes some practice. Think of it as a learning process. One way we learn is through the lives of the saints. They start out as ordinary people who give their lives to Jesus. As we read or hear about them, we see how God works through them to do great things. We learn that they become more and more like Jesus, in how they treat others with love and respect.

But if the saints seem too distant, we can look at someone we love. Whether it is a parent, spouse, brother, sister or friend, the good that they do and the love they show is from God. So we can learn about God's love for us by letting ourselves be loved by another. Take time to thank God for those who love you and ask him to open your eyes to see Jesus in them.

The other side of the coin is seeing Jesus in ourselves. We may have to forgive ourselves for the bad choices we have made in the past, or the bad habits we still have. We also have to accept that God really does love us as his children. And we have to accept that sometimes, even when we do our best, we still seem to fail. Remember, to the world of Jesus' time, he looked like a failure: He was executed as a criminal, his few followers all went into hiding, and the one he picked as his successor (Peter) denied even knowing him. But the God who brings life out of death also brings success out of failure. So trust his promise that we have Jesus in us. Then do your best to follow Jesus and you may lead someone else to him.

La Ascensión del Señor Exaltado en gloria

Las tres lecturas hablan de Jesús ascendiendo al cielo o en una nube o en lo alto. Acuérdate que en el Antiguo Testamento, una nube era una señal de la presencia de Dios. Así que, estas descripciones de la ascensión en realidad nos dicen que Jesús se reúne con su Padre y es exaltado en gloria con el Padre. Jesús no solamente tiene una nueva vida que no puede terminar por la muerte, sino que ya no está limitado por el tiempo o el espacio tampoco, como era antes de morir. Entonces, ¿qué significa eso para nosotros?

A causa de que no está limitado, puede estar con nosotros en todas partes. Entonces todo lo que hacemos por él (ser paciente con un niño o una persona mayor, cuidar al pobre o al enfermo, perdonar a alguien que nos haya lastimado) lo hacemos con Jesús. A través de su Espíritu, nos da el poder y el valor para actuar como Jesús y la visión de fe para ver a Jesús en los demás.

Ver a Jesús en los demás requiere algo de práctica. Puedes pensarlo como un proceso de aprendizaje. Una manera de aprender es a través de la vida de los santos. Comienzan como personas ordinarias que entregan sus vidas a Jesús. Al leer o escuchar acerca de ellos, vemos cómo Dios obra a través de ellos para hacer grandes cosas. Aprendemos que se parecen cada vez más a Jesús en la forma en que tratan a los demás con amor y respeto.

Pero si los santos parecen demasiado distantes, podemos mirar a alguien que amamos. Ya sea un padre, esposo, hermano, hermana o amigo, el bien que hacen y el amor que demuestran proviene de Dios. Entonces podemos aprender sobre el amor de Dios por nosotros dejándonos amar por otras personas. Tómate el tiempo para agradecer a Dios por quienes te aman y pídele que abra tus ojos para ver a Jesús en ellos.

La otra cara de la moneda es ver a Jesús en nosotros mismos. Quizás tengamos que perdonarnos a nosotros mismos por las malas decisiones que hemos tomado en el pasado o por los malos hábitos que todavía tenemos. También tenemos que aceptar que Dios realmente nos ama como sus hijos. Y tenemos que aceptar que a veces, incluso cuando hacemos lo mejor que podemos, parece que todavía fallamos. Acuérdate, Jesús parecía un fracaso para el mundo de su época: fue ejecutado como un criminal, todos sus pocos seguidores se escondieron e incluso el que eligió como su sucesor (Pedro) negó que lo conociera. Pero el Dios que saca vida de la muerte también saca éxito del fracaso. Así que confía en su promesa de que tenemos a Jesús dentro de nosotros. Luego haz lo mejor que puedas para seguir a Jesús, y podrás guiar a alguien más hacia él.
